SELECTION OF NOMINEES

In addition to seeking a nomination from Rep. Raskin, you must contact the Admissions Office at each academy to open an admissions file. Following consideration of the applicants, Rep. Raskin's Review Board will propose slates of candidates for nominations to each of the service academies. Final decisions on appointments and admission are at the discretion of the service academies.

Because nominations are highly competitive, it is to your advantage to apply to more than one academy. Rep. Raskin urges you to research the opportunities afforded by each of the academies to serve the United States.
